Company Background / About Company: Balaji Telefilms Ltd. is one of the largest production houses across India, South Asia, South East Asia and the Middle East delivering Hindi and regional content. Ruling the roost in content production in the TV and films space. Our dominance in TV soaps can be dated back to the early 1990s. Even as we made rapid strides in the Hindi market we realised the potential for the growing demand in regional content. Today having produced over 15,000 hours of television content, we are one of the leading providers of television entertainment in India. Moreover, we have evolved from being a pure-play TV content provider into one that produces content for the big screen too. Our success in the television market is attributed to understanding the pulse of the masses, anticipating viewer and channel preferences and creating programs which are in tune with the changing times.
